Preamble

EEX AG is a privately owned stock corporation under the laws of the Federal Republic of Germany. EEX AG operates the European Energy Exchange (“EEX”). EEX AG markets data relating to volumes and prices of products traded at EEX and – under license by its respective operating company – data relating to volumes and prices of products traded at its other exchange which are part of EEX Group. This other exchange and its respective operating company is:

- EEX ASIA, a commercial-law exchange based in Singapore, and its operating company EEX Asia Pte. Ltd.

EEX and EEX ASIA shall hereinafter be jointly referred to as the “Exchanges”.

EEX AG and EEX Asia Pte. Ltd. shall hereinafter be jointly referred to as the “Operating Companies”.

EEX AG distributes the relevant data in form of EEX Group DataSource Products. This DataSource Service Agreement shall define the terms and conditions under which the Contracting Party shall be granted access to EEX Group DataSource Products, including the rights granted to the Contracting Party regarding the use of EEX Group DataSource Products.

NOW, THEREFORE: the parties to this contract make the following arrangements:

1. Data and Information received from EEX trading system

The Contracting Party intends to use all data and information it receives from EEX trading system within the scope of its own trading activities as per the EEX Exchange Rules § 66.

Any other usage of data and information received from EEX trading system, shall not be permitted without the prior consent of EEX AG.

For the avoidance of doubt, the General Conditions Applicable to EEX-Group DataSource Products do not apply to usage of data and information received from EEX trading system.

2. EEX Group DataSource Products
